

Volunteering on Culture Night 2011
Friday September 23rd

Dublin Culture Night will take place on Friday September 23rd, a night of entertainment, discovery and adventure in Dublin city as arts and cultural organisations and venues open their doors until late with hundreds of free tours, talks, performances and events for you, your family and friends to enjoy. Culture Night is co-ordinated by Temple Bar Cultural Trust and supported by the Department of Arts, Heritage and the Gaeltacht in partnership with the regional arts offices and local authorities. Culture Night is a hugely important event on the cultural calendar providing people with the opportunity to discover and enjoy the rich cultural offering of the country's cultural venues at night.

In Dublin, a record 155 venues will open their doors for Culture Night including Christ Church Cathedral, the National Museum of Ireland, the Science Gallery Trinity College, The Guinness Storehouse, Dublin Castle State Apartments, The Ark - A Cultural Centre for Children, the Chester Beatty Library and many more.

Temple Bar Cultural Trust is looking to gather a team of well organised volunteers who would like to take part in this annual event.

The main tasks that we will need volunteer assistance for are:

- Guides on the Culture Night buses
- Assisting stewards with a number of outdoor events
- Culture Night information points

If you would like to get involved please fill in the application form and return it to volunteer@templebar.ie or contact Elena Rustici, Culture Night Volunteer Co-ordinator on
